CARL WANDERER IS HANGED WHILE HE SANG

Was Bravest Condemned Man Ever Executed in Cook County Jail

SINGS THROUGH NIGHT

Man Who Planned Death of His Wife Pays Penalty Early This Morning

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—Carl Wanderer stood on the scaffold and sang, "Old Pal, Why Don't You Answer Me" before he was hung here today. He was singing to the wife he murdered. As though from a concert stage, the following words were sung without a break or waver in his voice:

"The long night through, I want for you,
Old pal, why don't you answer me?
My arms embrace an empty space—
The arms that held you tenderly.
If you can hear my prayer
Away there—
Old pal, why don't you answer me?"

The murderer of Mrs. Wanderer and the "poor boob" went to his death without a show of fear or an outward sign of repentance.

As he stood on the scaffold and the hangman's noose was being adjusted around his neck, Wanderer was asked if he had anything to say. He responded by singing in a clear, resonant voice, the chorus of "Old Pal, Why Don't You Answer me?"

A deathlike quiet settled on the crowd which packed the little enclosure where the scaffold was erected, until the last note was finished. As the hood was adjusted, Wanderer repeated clearly the prayers intoned for him by his pastor. He stood erect, with his head and shoulders thrown back. The trap was sprung at 7:21 and he was pronounced dead five minutes later.

"The gamest man ever hung in this jail," was the comment of attaches of the prison. Wanderer spent his last night singing and whistling between intermittene spells. He was buoyant and happy and talked and laughed with the guards.

Frequently through the night the guards heard the strains of "Old Pal, Why Don't You Answer Me?" coming from the condemned man's cell. He apparently was practicing the song which he planned to sing on the scaffold.

Wanderer had a newspaper picture of his wife near his heart when he was hanged. He was allowed to place the picture inside his shirt. Shortly before the death march began, he read a few passages from the Bible and then read from a pamphlet entitled "Hell," which he had taken to his death cell.

The murder which cost Wanderer his life was committed in the vestibule of his home on June 21, 1920.

He was returning from a theater with his wife. A tramp, who had been hired by Wanderer to commit a "fake holdup," stopped them inside the door. The wife and tramp were killed.

His story of the holdup was at first accepted and he was regarded as a hero for killing the "bandit." Police, however, traced the gun used by the "poor boob" to Wanderer, and he confessed.

There were three possible motives for the killing—Wanderer's love for another girl; his desire to return to the army, and the fact that his wife drew $1,000 from the bank the day before the murder. This money was used in Wanderer's defense.

At the first trial, on the charge of killing his wife, Wanderer was given a sentence of 25 years. He was brought to trial for the killing of the "poor boob" and sentenced to death.

SALT LAKE LINE TO ENTER ORANGE CO.

Matter Before State Railroad Commission in San Francisco Today

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 30. — An outline of extensions to the Los Angeles and Salt Lake railroad in Southern California to cost between $1,500,000 and $2,000,000, was before the state railroad commission here today.

One proposed extension is a line from Whittier to Tustin, Orange county, a distance of 22 miles.

The other is from Whittier to Santa Ana, Orange county, a distance of 14 miles.

The railroad company asked approval of the commission for its plans. It was pointed out that the two extensions will tap a rich agricultural section expected to furnish large amounts of freight traffic.

ARBUCKLE TO TRIAL WITHIN 60 DAYS

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 30.—Roscoe Arbuckle probably will be on trial within 60 days, according to District Attorney Matthew Brady, prosecutor, in setting at rest claims of the defense that Arbuckle may never be brought to trial.

Brady said he will file the formal information against Arbuckle Monday or Tuesday. Before the end of the week he hopes to have Arbuckle arraigned and at that time the trial will se set.

Some date during the last two weeks in November was considered the most probable time for the exactor's trial.

Judge, Buffoon, Orange Juice and Gin Given Scoring

It is greater to toss a custard pie into the face than it is to unhold the traditions of the courts and the law.

This is the conclusion of James W. Foley in "The Listening Post" tonight in his review of the action of the San Francisco judge in the Arbuckle case.

And Mr. Foley gives his views in a manner that leaves no question as to his meaning. The fat buffoon, the judge, the dead girl, gin and orange juice—all the leading actors in the sordid drama, are mentioned. It will be worth your while to read what Mr. Foley has to say about this tonight.

Henry James in his comments, also on the editorial page, speaks of the demand for the parole of Roy Gardner. He says that Gardner elected to become a thief from choice, that he looted the mails, escaped from jail and instead of beginning the honest life, committed another crime. Mr. James deals with Gardner sensibly, not hysterically. On the editorial page, too.

You will find, also, a poem by Henry Van Dyke, extracts from Eastern newspapers, paragraphs by Quillen, who says that a law-abiding citizen is one who doesn't like hootch.

Editorials deal with the cotton situation, neglected children, the "foiling" of Mr. Wilson, Gardner's message and the useful "Agenda."

It will be worth your while to read this page every night.

COUNCIL PERMITS LAUNDRY SITE LAST NIGHT

Much-Discussed Plan Ends When Vote Last Night Gives Permit

TWO VOTES AGAINST

Audience Voices Disapproval by Leaving the Council Chamber in "Huff"

In spite of the protests of practically every property owner in the vicinity of Verdugo wash, Pacific and Arden avenues, the city council last night voted by a majority of three to two to grant a permit for the establishment of a laundry in that district. Councilmen Stephenson and Lapham voted against granting the permit, but were defeated by the votes of Mayor Robinson, and Councilmen Davis and Kimlin.

Numerous property owners in the vicinity of the proposed laundry were present to make further protest to granting the permit. The principal cause for protest was the fact that there is an industrial district in the city of Glendale and that when the present property owners purchased their land it was understood that they were buying in a residential district and would be protected from the invasion of industries.

Councilman Stephenson addressed the board and told why he was going to vote against granting the permit. He said that by voting against it, it was not his intention to hinder any industry that wanted to locate in Glendale, but inasmuch as Glendale has a well defined district, he thought it was the duty of the council to see that industries are confined to that district and that the property owners in the residential section should be protected from the invasion of their section by business of any kind.

This statement was greeted by enthusiastic applause from the audience. He also called attention of the council to the industrial ordinance and the protection offered the property owner in this ordinance, and declared that if the present industrial section is not sufficiently large to accommodate the growing business section, that it is up to the council to establish a new industrial district and then let the proshere with their eyesETAOINNUUN pective property owners buy land here with their eyes open. He thought it was rank injustice to let people buy property thinking they would be protected from an invasion of the residence section by industries and then put a laundry or other industry in front of their doors.

Councilman Lapham endorsed the statements of Stephenson and announced his intention to vote against the permit.

When Mayor Robinson cast the deciding vote in favor of the laundry a murmur of protest swept over the audience.

As the protestants left the council chambers, doors were slammed in anger, and several of the property owners hissed the decision.

TREATY AGREEMENT PLAN OF LEADERS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—The Senate today was expected to approve an agreement worked out by Senators Underwood and Lodge, providing for ending the debate on the German treaty no later than Friday, October 14.

The tax bill, while it will be in theory laid aside for consideration of the treaty for the next two weeks, probably will occupy actually more of the Senate's time and attention than the German pact. The arrangements to be proposed to the Senate today provide that when anybody wants to talk treaty the tax bill must give way, but when no treaty debate is running the tax bill may be considered.

The arrangement to be made today is one of those "victories" which can be claimed by everybody. The Democrats won a victory in forcing Lodge to give them time to put themselves straight before the country and explain why they are voting for ratification or against it.

The Republican administration leaders claim a victory in the prevention of a long, dragging fight, extending into November and the period of the disarmament conference.

FORD WILL CONTINUE ILLEGAL USE OF FUNDS

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 30.—Henry Ford declared today he will not "stop protesting against the illegal use of money in elections as long as Truman H. Newberry is in the United States senate."

"I will carry the issue to the people in every state whose senators vote to whitewash Senator Newberry," the automobile manufacturer declared in an interview with the United Press. Ford was defeated by Newberry for the office of Uited States senator from Michigan in 1918.

"I do not want public office myself," Ford continued. "You could not drag me into the senate. But I will not rest while Newberry or anyone else, who through the illegal use of huge sums of money during a political campaign, holds a seat in the senate."

SEEK MEXICAN GANG FOR MURDER OF BRAKEMAN

Mexicans Are Ordered From Freight Train and Shoot On Signal to Stop

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 30. — E. E. Moore, brakeman of the Southern Pacific, was shot and killed by a member of a Mexican gang, which he attempted to evict from a train near here last night. Moore's body was found on a flat car when the train arrived at Galt at 8 p. m. yesterday. A 17-year-old boy who witnessed the shooting informed Conductor R. Jensen. According to the lads story there were six Mexicans aboard the train en route to Tracy from Roseville. Brakeman Moore ordered them from the train but they refused to leave. The brakeman was climbing to the top of a box car to signal the engineer to stop when one of the Mexicans drew a revolver and shot him through the back. Moore fell to the flat car, mortally wounded. The murderers jumped from the train three miles north of Galt.

The car on which Moore's body lay was sidetracked at Galt, the train proceeding to Stockton. The boy who witnessed the crime went on to Stockton where it is believed he will be apprehended and held, pending further investigation of the case.

Wholesale Thefts of Motor Car Parts Is Uncovered by Government

GRIEVANCES OF RAIL EMPLOYES BEING DISCUSSED

Believed Committee Must Abide by 91 Per Cent Favoring Walkout

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—Grievance committees of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen on 57 lines today began consideration of the advisability of going out on strike.

Within ten days, their decisions will be in the hands of President Wm. G. Lee. Lee then will lay the facts before the Brotherhood's highest tribunal—the executive committee.

There is but little doubt among organization officials as to the attitudes of the grievance committees. The official canvass of the strike ballots showed 91 per cent of the membership voted to walk out rather than accept wage cuts decreed by the United States labor board. So, union chieftains believed, there is nothing else for the committees to do but abide by the majority's wishes.

S. P. OFFICER KILLED TWO MEXICAN TRAMPS

VISALIA, Calif., Sept. 30.—Two Mexicans were shot and killed at 3 a. m. today by N. T. Greene, special officer of the Southern Pacific railway when they attacked him after he had ordered them off a train.

Greene, who was on duty at Goshen, a junction point, ordered the Mexicans along with other tramps off a freight train. The two Mexicans argued with him and finally attacked. One struck him in the face knocking him down.

As he lay on the ground Greene opened fire with his revolver, killing one of the Mexicans instantly and wounding the second who died in a hospitadl here shortly before daylight. Greene has not been held.

COLD WELCOME FOR ARBUCKLE IN L. A.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 30.—Roscoe Arbuckle who, when he left here three short weeks ago was one of fildom's best-loved comedians, slipped quietly back into Los Angeles today, coldly unwelcomed, a broken idol of movieland.

Katherine Fitzgerald, Arbuckl's secretary and housekeeper at the West Adams street home with the cellar of renown throughout Hollywood, has quietly disappeared. A tag reading "Mrs. Leah Irving Fitzgerald" was attached to trunks and baggage taken to a railroad station from the Arbuckle home during the night. It seemed apparent that Mrs. Roscoe Arbuckle herself was again to reign on West Adams street.

NATIONAL GUARD'S ENTERTAINMENT WAS WINNER

Wrestling Bout Put Audience on Edge as Men Work for Victory

With John Hackenschmidt, former light-heavy wrestling champion of the United States, performing an amazing series of scissor, toe-hold and headlock contortions in an exhibition bout, at the high school gym last night, members of the Glendale National Guard companies were treated to an evening of sport such as has not been witnessed here for months.

Hackenschmidt stacked up against his training partner and for half an hour the big mat was replete with a series of thrills that demonstrated the prowess of the wrestler's art. This bout was purely in the nature of an exhibition but not so the opening set-to.

Inspired with the determination of long standing rivalry Sherwood Ball, a member of the National Guard, and Harry McClusky, also of Glendale, put up a snappy bout that brought cheers of commendation from ardent supporters. The match was declared a draw after more than a half hour of spirited grappling. A return go is promised. With both men declaring they have the edge on the other the on-coming ordeal looks like sure-fire stuff.

Last night marked the first of a series of sporting events and entertainments under the auspices of the National Guard. Officers of the guard companies announce that the organization is to be made a social as well as a military unit and that everything possible will be done to make membership in th National Guard worth while.

Colonel Walter P. Story, of the 160th infantry, Major Robert C. Cotton, chief instructor of infantry, and Major W. B. Heinnecke, commandant of the Third battalion, to which the Glendale units belong, were present as guests of honor.

Major Cotton gave a brief address in which he urged the men to attend drills, pointing out that membership in the guard is a privilege and an honor. He stated that the process of organization of the 160th infantry is now completed and that the regiment is ready for constructive work.

High tribute was paid by Colonel Story to the personnel of Company M and headquarters company. He declared he had enjoyed the sport keenly and was determined to repeat his visits more frequently.

OIL STRIKERS DID NOT HOLD STATION AT COALINGA

Charges Were Based on Mere Hearsay Sheriff Tells Bakersfield Officials

BAKERSFIELD, Sept. 30.—"No oil strikers took part in the raid on the Pacific Oil Co.'s plant at Coalinga."

This was the definite asertion here today by Vice-President Harry Baker of the International Union.

"Sheriff Jones telephoned me from Coalinga today that the only charges made against union men were based on the merest hearsay and not founded on facts," Baker informed the United Press.

Walter Yarrow, another union official, today dispatched a telegram to Chairman Al Weil of the Oil Operators' association, urging further consideration of the strikers' stand.

In his message, which was 400 words in length, Yarrow denied the alleged inefficiency of workers under Government mediation.

"The Governments signature on contracts between men and employers does not guarantee the workers' jobs," he asserted, in urging the operators to concede to the union's request that the Government underwrite all agreements.

DRY AGENT GAVE IT BACK POLICE SAID

Cocktails and Champagne Seized by Police at Party Returned by Agent

Arthur Layne, head of the police raiding squad, charged in a statement today. He claimed that the liquor was returned by prohibition officers at the direction of Forest Mitchell, prohibition chief, over Layne's protest.

The incident was alleged to have occurred at the "Old Poodle Dog" restaurant here. Layne's charges caused a mighty stir.

"I seized the liquor as evidence and put it away," Layne declared. "A prohibition officer returned it to the party and they drank the evidence."

Layne said he refused to raid parties drinking "cheap wine" and let the champagne drinkers go free.

HOBO OUTBREAK IS CAUSE OF THREE DEATHS TODAY

Gang of "Wearies" in Los Angeles Jail After Stealing Freight

BRAKEMAN IS SLAIN

Hobo Problem Worst in History as a Result of Conditions in East

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 30.—Outbreaks of "hoboes" now flocking to California as a result of the industrial situation in the east, is causing western railroads to admit that they are confronted by a serious problem in protecting their property.

During the last 24 hours three lives have been taken in battles between tramps and railroad guards and one train has been "stolen" and run a distance of 150 miles from Bakersfield to Los Angeles by "hoboes."

E. E. Moore, brakeman on a freight train, was shot and killed by one of eight "hoboes," whom he attempted to put off a train at Galt, Calif., last night. N. T. Greene, special railroad policeman, shot and killed two Mexican tramps at Goshen, Calif., early today after they had attacked him when he ordered them off a train.

Seventy-five hoboes were arrested last night in Los Angeles when they arrived from Bakersfield with a train which they had commandeered during the afternoon. They had run the train on fast schedule the entire distance of 150 miles, forcing dispatchers to side track regular trains for the "weary" special.

"Our hobo problem is the worst it has ever been," an official of the Southern Pacific said today. "It is the result of eastern unemployment situation.

"Many of the men who are crowding onto the brakebeams of every westbound freight train now-adays, are not necessarily 'hoboes' but are men accustomed to hard work, but who cannot find means of making a living in the east. They are flocking to California because of the mild winter climate and the fact that unemployment is not quite so acute here as in the east."

The corridors of one of Los Angeles' most extensive structures echoes to a plaintive melody:

"Sittin' in the jail house,
With our heads against the wall—"

Several hundred more "gentlemen of the open spaces" escaped the reception committee, which boarded the stolen freight train at Burbank after torpedoes had been placed on the track, forcing it to slow down after a non-stop run. Railroad detectives aided over a hundred city policemen in the roundup.

RUMORS OF CHANGE HARDING CABINET STILL PERSIST

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—The first six months of the Harding administration having gone by without the occurence of anything startling, The tea table and cloak room gossips of the national capital are predicting some radical changes in the make up of official Washington for the next six.

It is the gossip of Washington that before the new administration celebrates its first anniversary, there will be at least two, maybe three and possibly more cabinet changes. The rumors have recently become so circumstantial that they have found their way into some metropolitan papers and have resulted in the expected denials. The reports, however, persist.

The names chiefly concerned in these rumored changes are Secretary of the Treasury Andrew W. Mellon and Attorney-General Harry M. Daugherty.

According to the stories that circulate among the tea tables of Washington, Secretary Mellon has tired of public life after his brief first taste of it, and is desirous of getting back to the placid serenity of directing a score of big corporations and banks with which he is connected.

This is Secretary Mellon's first taste of public life and political contact and it is admitted by his few intimates that he has found it little to his liking. Being naturally of a shy and retiring disposition, the Secretary of the Treasury is said to have formed a pronounced dislike to the rough give-and-take of Washington political life, and it would not surprise his intimates should he embrace the first opportunity to get back into private life.

Secretary Mellon has found rough sledding in Washington with his tax program, and this is said to have increased his dislike for his job. One of his first official acts was the presentation to Congress of an estimate of how much money it would take to run the Federal government for the next fiscal year, based on the amount of expenditures which he saw would be necessary in the existing state of things.

Congress, with an eye to re-election next year and realizing the potency of an economy argument with the average voter, slashed his estimates unmercifully. President Harding was called in as a mediator in the resultant dispute and, realizing the party's need, the Chief Executive supported the Congressional side, with the result that Mellon's figures were discarded.

Many of the Secretary's tax recommendations suffered the same fate at the hands of House Republicans in charge of framing the new revenue bill. The Republicans of the Senate Finance Committee likewise disregarded and cast aside a number of his recommendations.

The net result of these experiences is said to have increased the Secretary's dislike for a post which he was reluctant to accept in the first place.

If Mellen does resign, it is generally believed in Washington that Secretary of War John W. Weeks will be shifted over to the treasury department, where he has long desired to be. It is understood that Weeks accepted the war portfolio with the understanding that he would be given the treasury berth at the first opportunity.

The cast of Attorney-General Daugherty is not like that of Mellon. The attorney-general has been the grand master of patronage since March 4 last, and the demands made upon him have been tremendous. Aspirants for every kind of a Federal job—from watchman to ambassador—have had to "see Daugherty," and as all have not been taken care of it has led to some hard feelings in many quarters.

Personal reasons also are said to figure largely in the attorney general's reported desire to retire fom his post. His own health is none too good, and Ms. Daugherty is an invalid, necessitating his spending much time traveling back and forth between Washington and Ohio.

No confirmation of the rumors regarding either Mellon or Daugherty is obtainable, but the gossiping persists around the Capitol.

Should Daugherty leave the Cabinet, the belief prevails that President Harding would name as his successor either former Senator George Sutherland of Utah, or James M. Beck of New York, at present Solicitor General in the Department.

IMPERIAL WIZARD'S WISH WILL SOON BE GRANTED

Congress Will Start Investigation of Ku Klux Klan Recent Activities

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—Congress will in all probability accept the invitation to investigate the Ku Klux Klan, telegraphed by Imperial Wizard William Joseph Simmons, to members of the house and senate, Senator Pomerin, Ohio, said today.

"In view of things that have happened, there should be a congressional investigation," Pomerin said. "Senators generally are favorable to an investigation of the Ku Klux Klan."

TWO ACCIDENTS IN GLENDALE THURSDAY

Two traffic accidents were reported at police headquarters yesterday. The first occurred at the intersection of Central avenue and Los Feliz road, where Louis Alberty, Pasadena, said he was driving west on Los Feliz road and at the intersection of Central a machine driven by A. H. Throop of Los Angeles collided with his car, damaging the front wheel to the extent of $20.

The machine driven by S. C. Rogers of Burbank collided with a car operated by Mrs. Lucille Eames of Glendale, at the corner of Brand boulevard and San Fernando road.

According to a diagram of the accident, Rogers was driving north on Brand boulevard, apparently on the wrong side of the street, and turned out to pass an eastbound bus on Los Feliz road, and collided with the Eames car which was going south on Brand boulevard. Both cars were damaged.

CHICAGO RUM QUIZ GETS QUICK RESULTS

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—Investigation by Federal authorities of liquor rings said to involve half of Chicago's 5000 policemen, is being speeded up following half a dozen sensational developments yesterday.

These included the death of a woman while being questioned at the Federal buiding, the finding of an alleged whisky runner dead on a country road, the hold-up of a freight train which was robbed of twenty cases of gin, the alleged confession of a police officer, and the hunt for a "rum pirate" ship.

Mrs. Rose Allen died a few minutes after questioning by an Assistant District Attorney regarding her connection with alleged extortion schemes. An investigation is being made to determine whether she committed suicide.

GROWTH OF CITY IS HELD UP BY RENTS

New opinions regarding the rent profiteer, the house shortage and the landlord who refuses to rent houses to the parents of children are being voiced every day by real estate agents and citizens who are aroused over the fact that the growth of Glendale is being made a secondary thought with the owners of property who are holding their vacant houses for rent that is too high for the average man to pay.

J. C. Pollock, of the real estate firm of Pollock & Tamoth, 133 South Brand boulevard, in commenting on the situation here in Glendale, said: "The shortage of houses in Glendale is really becoming serious. Every day we have an average of from six to eight inquiries for houses to rent either furnished or unfurnished while we have an average of only six houses listed for rent during the month.

"Rents in Glendale are too high. The average man working on wages cannot aford to pay from $75 to $100 per month for a house in addition to his other household expenses. By holding up the rent for houses a stumbling block is being thrown in the path of Glendale's growth. There are many people who would move to Glendale tomorrow if they could find a house with reasonable rent.

"In regards to the renting of houses to parents with children, of course there are some children who are objectionable from the landlord's point of view but no child should be the cause of barring the parents from renting any house. There is a better plan than refusing to rent to the parents of children. Landlords should rent to people with children and explain to the parents that they would be held responsible for any damage done either to the house or the furniture by the children. This should be explained to the parents and they hould be asked to sign an agreement to pay for such damages. Of course if the parents refuse to sign such an agreement then the landlord is justified in refusing to rent his house to them.

"At present I am renting two houses that I own here in Glendale to families and both of my tenants have children and I feel that my property is receiving the same care that it would receive were there no small children in the families of my tenants. My tenants understand that they are responsible for any damage done to the property by their children and are careful that the property is not damaged.

"In some cases the parents are more apt to damage property and furniture in a rented house than are children so to my belief it is wrong to refuse to rent a house to people simply because there are small children. Rent the house to people with children and have the tenant sign an agreement to make good any damage to the property and the problem is solved."

"Robert! Robert! Here's another car rounding the corner. How shall I steer?"

"Try to it it, mother; try to hit it."

WAR MOTHERS MAKE SINGER STOP SONG

Plan for Election of Officers on Friday—Plant Tree in Sacramento

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 30.—Omaha and Kansas City are contenders for the 1922 convnetion of National War Mothers. Philadelphia has made a bid for the 1926 convention in connection with the world's fair to be held there.

Planting of a war mother's tree in the memorial grove at the state capital was the feature of the day's program.

George Baldwin a local singer, brought forth storms of disapproval when he censured the Amerigan Legion. Baldwin sang a song. He was persistently encored.

"I will now sing a song I composed soon after the war was over," he said. "It was written when we thought the American Legion would do something more than promote prize fights and street carniavsl."

His words were heard with shouts of "stop such talk" from the mothers of veterans.

ROY GARDNER WROTE RAYMOND

Officials Compare the Handwriting to Find if Gardner Was Author

RAYMOND, Wash., Sept. 30.—That Roy Gardner, mail bandit and fleet-footed convict de luxe was actually in Raymond last Friday and that there he wrote the letter published by the San Francisco Bulletin, was considered as certain today.

This belief, held by Chief of Police Shumway, was substantiated late yesterday when Shumway received a letter from George W. Berry of the department of justice in Seattle to the effect that the letter received by the Bulletin was postmarked "Raymond," and that the paper used in its inscription was taken from a pad borrowed from Mrs. Ruth Lowman, proprietor of the Raymond rooms in Raymond.

"There is no question about the writing being Gardner's," Berry informed Chief Shumway. Shumway has the borrowed tablet in his possession. Creditors of George B. Wilbur, Gardner's professed friend, are making no effort to have Wilbur brought back here should he be found.

PEARSON-LOGAN MARRIAGE THURSDAY

Before a floral screen of ferns and colorful red dahlias which filled the embraisure of a western window, the wedding of Mary Logan and Marshall Pearson was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Logan, on East Park avenue.

The winsome little bride had insisted that it be a simple home affair and so the witnesses were limited to the near relations of contracting parties. Even so the guests numbered about 60, for both have many relatives in and around Glendale.

Rev. Daniel Webster of Central avenue, who officiated at the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Logan, 21 years ago, had the pleasure of performing the service for their daughter.

The bride wore her going-away gown of dark blue cloth and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses, and was given in marriage by her father.

Attending her as maid of honor and bridesmaid respectively were her close chum, Harriet Barnes, and Miss Clara Pearson, sister of the groom. Both young women were gowned in black canton crepe and carried red roses.

The groom was attended by his old friend and business associate, Victor Myers of Los Angeles.

Just before the ceremony Olaf Anderssen, cousin of the bride, sang "O Promise Me," another cousin, Miss Helen Kapus playing the piano accompaniment. Mrs. Dorothy Hobbs Smith also a cousin, accompanied on the piano by her sister, Mrs. Noble Ripley, sang "Because."

The wedding march was played by the groom's youngest sister, Miss Marian Pearson.

After congratulations, refreshments in which the red and green color scheme prevailed, were served, and with the conventional shower of rice and old shoes the young people left for a brief honeymoon.

On their return they will occupy an apartment at Wilson and Brand, where their beautiful collection of wedding gifts, a wonderful array of silver, linen, cut glass, electrical appliances, pictures, furniture, etc., will be put to use.

Mary Logan Pearson, who was born here, is one of the fine types of Glendale's best families. Like her husband she was graduated from Glendale High and it was there the acquaintance which ripened into love, began.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Pearson, who have resided in this city most of the time for the past thirteen years. Since his graduation he has made an excellent business record with the Pacific Fruit Express Company with which his father is also associated. For a part of each year he has been stationed in the Imperial Valley where the company has a tremendous trade in melons and truck garden products. In the course of a few months he and his bride will probably go to Brawley to make their home. His parents are also locating there, having disposed of their home here.

KITCHEN SHOWER FOR BRIDE-TO-BE

Miss Doris Ingledue was guest of honor at a pre-nuptial party at which young women of the Sunday school class of which she is a member, were guests, last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lee. Mrs. Wilbur Lee and Miss Leone Shattuck were the hostesses.

The early part of the evening was devoted to "Bunko," the first prize going to Miss Dora Wainwright, the consolation favor to Miss Agnes Verity.

Vocal solos by Miss Marie Oliver, for which Miss Lois Percey played the accompaniment, came next on the program, and then Miss Percey played a wedding march, and a mock wedding was staged. Miss Wainwright assumed the role of bride and Miss Nyda Dana the groom, other members of the class falling in as attendants. The bride's bouquet was a bunch of kitchen utensils, and each attendant carried at least one of the articles constituting the kitchen shower which were presented to the bride-to-be at the conclusion of the march.

The wedding supper was the next event, and proved to be ice cream, cake and fruitade, Miss Ingledue being asked to cut the cake. Mrs. Chas. Shattuck, Mrs. Charles Ingledue, Miss Helen Ingledue and Mrs. Ed Lee were special guests of the class and the company numbered about 24.

PREVIEW TONIGHT AT PALACE GRAND

Dealing with subtle human emotions in a characteristic manner, Elinor Glyn's original picture written by her for Paramount and in which Gloria Swanson makes her debu as a star, "The Great Moment" was shown with no inconsiderable success at the Palace Grand theatre last night.

"The Great Moment" deals with the love trials of Nadine Pelham, a gypsy, portrayed by Miss Swanson, and Bayard Delaval, a mining engineer, played by Milton Sills. There are several intensely dramatic situations all of which are artistically handled by the star and her supporting players. The picture, directed by Sam Wood, has a majesty all its own and its beauty is as undeniable as its appeal is irresistible. That it was fully appreciated by the audience, its flattering reception amply indicated.

The Famous Players Lasky Corp., will preview their season's greatest offering tonight, at 9 p. m. "The Great Moment" will be over by 9 o'clock, and those who are in the theatre may remain to preview this new ten reel production.

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

If Mixed With Sulphur It Darkens So Naturally Nobody Can Tell

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive.

GLENDALE FOOTBALL TEAMS IN TWO GAMES

Coach Hayhurst will divide the football squad of the Glendale Union High School into two teams today and send one team to Los Angeles for a practice game with the Lincoln High School team, while the other team will go to Burbank and play the high school team there.

Considerable interest will be shown at Burbank and a large attendance at the game there is expected as the Burbank players were on the short end of an 18 to 0 score on the gridiron here in the first practice game of the season on Tuesday.

The schedule for regular league games during the football season for the Central Aathletic League of which the Glendale High School is a member has been arranged and is as follows:

October 7—South Pasadena at Monrovia, Glendale at Alhambra, Citrus Union at Covina.

Truths in Epigram

Insurrection of thought always precedes insurrection of arms.—Wendell Phillips (1811-84).

If all our wishes were gratified, most of our pleasures would be destroyed. — Archbishop Whately (1787-1863).

Never forget what a man says to you when he is angry.—Rev. Henry Ward Beecher (1813-87).

GARDNER'S MESSAGE

A letter purporting to be from Roy Gardner, bandit recently escaped from the federal penitentiary, has been received by the editor of a San Francisco paper. Although there are evidences that might be construed as evidence of the genuineness of the document, the chances are that it is spurious. It seems to give a circumstantial account of the experiences of Gardner since the prison guards last saw him and shot at him. This account, however, could have been written by anybody of intelligence who had watched the case.

Supposing the letter to be that of Gardner, he ought to realize from the very fact of its safe delivery, the meanness of his own crimes. He must have been anxious to have the letter reach its address. In it are professions of penitence, and a plea for clemency. He would have regarded the failure of the message to get through, as little less than a tragedy. Yet when he was free his delight was to rifle mail sacks. That which he found and which was of no use to him, he scattered to the winds without compunction. Yet daily there pass through the mails private letters of far greater importance than could attach to those of an outlaw.

Gardner is represented as asking for a chance to "make good." Doubtless the public opinion that has made a hero of him would be glad to have the chance afforded him. There is no reason to suppose that he would keep his pledge. His choice appears to be a criminal career.

After all, the probability is that the man is dead, perhaps at the bottom of Puget Sound. Mail clerks would feel safer if this could be confirmed.

NEGLECTED CHILDREN

Charity is organized in such a manner that the infant without parents seldom is numbered among the neglected. The list of neglected is made up largely of those who have at least one living parent. In many instances the fault is parental. Fathers and mothers, discouraged perhaps by circumstances, forget duty to their own flesh and blood. Fathers are the more frequent offenders. It is seldom that a mother will abandon her young, and if under stress, she does take such a course, she is likely to try to provide for the future of the little one through direct appeal to the kind-hearted. The father it is who wanders away leaving no trace, or loafs on the job, forcing his wife to be the wage-earner.

These comments are suggested by the fact that a father of two children has just been sent to the county jail for two years for his neglect of them. While a prisoner he will work, earning a wage of $1.50 a day, which will go to provide for his family. Jail is the proper place for him.

Of course the authorities would not treat a worthy man in this drastic fashion. It would be grossly unfair to penalize any for being out of work if there was no work to be had. However, there are chronic loafers whose condition of idleness has no relation to the chance to toil. They never voluntarily change their habits. They would be just as idle and useless with employers clamoring for their services. They make the problem of unemployment appear even more serious than it is, and since they elect to be burdens to society, the burden is lightened by locking them up and making them earn their keep.

THE USEFUL "AGENDA"

People are beginning to see the word "agenda" very often. Formerly they seemed to get along quite well without it. But there was a time when no suffering resulted from the total absence of "propaganda" and "camouflage," so far as the average American reader was concerned never had been plucked from the lingual fields where it had blossomed, and thrust into common usage.

Attention is called by a subscriber to the fact that agenda is plural. There need be no tendency to take issue with him, although the word has come to be employed in place of program or schedule. No one hears of the program of the coming disarmament, but there is plenty concerning its agenda, and the person employing the latter term means exactly the same that he would have meant by the former. Thus the plural is made to serve as singular, although such use of it is arbitrary, lacks dictionary sanction, and certainly violates the principles of Latin construction.

Agenda is the plural of agendum, as data is the plural of datum. It happens that the exigencies of composition seldom call for the use of the singular form, and it has been almost completely ignored The stickler for style will continue to favor correctness, but the writer who prefers agenda to program will have his own way about it.

"FOILING" MR. WILSON

An editor who hates noticeably not only Ex-President Wilson, but everything related to the late administration, tells the world that the "Wilson treaty attack" has been foiled. There had been no such attack. The information as to the foiling serves a useful purpose, if any, only as it exposes the state of the editorial mind.

The position of the editor, however, may be understood readily. In the war his numerous papers were pro-German until the administration took him by the neck, figuratively of course, and shook him above the pens into which the disloyal were being fenced. He promised to be good, acquired the sudden habit of drooling a spurious patriotism, and hid his scars by wrapping himself in the Star-Spangled Banner.

There has been an attack planned on the treaty. Whether it has been foiled, or still awaits that experience, or will keep the senate for another long period beating the air vibrant with the sound of empty oratory, are matters still to be determined. The former President is not even remotely identified with the plan. It is headed by Borah, a highly conversational republican who had been accustomed to oppose every suggestion of Wilson while the latter with in the executive chair, and who could not afree with Wilson now without utter sacrifice of principle.

What the ex-President may think of the treaty is not of record. Probably he detests the idea of a separate peace as cordially as a few months earlier Lodge had detested it. However, he may in common with many other citizens recognize that the treaty now provides the only way out of a dilemma. He no longer is an active factor, and to say that he has been "foiled" in this particular relation, is to utter nonsense.

A GLANCE AT COTTON

This year cotton was left in the fields because it was not worth picking. There was no sale for it. There was no reflection of this condition in prices consumers had to pay for cotton products. On the contrary, one might have supposed that cotton was scarce, rather than being so abundant as to appear to be superfluous.

The statement is made that manufacturers are holding back the output in certain lines. This is not because the customers are not ready, nor because of lack of raw material. It is in order that a pretense of scarcity may be created and sustained. In other words, a certain group, recognizing the effect of the relation of demand to supply, propose to regulate the supply. This is the spirit of greed. It is a manifestation of the same spirit that has disgraced this country by the shameless operations of the profiteer.

Thoughtful citizens even now are in session seeking to devise ways of lessening unemployment. If they do their reckoning without regard to the important question of utter selfishness, which forms the basic creed of certain types of enterprise, a vital point will be overlooked.

Doubtless there are specific evils that may be corrected, but the great evil that lies in the soulless brutishness that sacrifices persons and principles on the altar of covetousness is not to be overcome by any set of resolutions.

If men cannot learn to treat their fellows with decency; if they cannot respond to any but ignoble impulses as they heap up unjust profits, no permanent reform is to be expected. The decay is in the moral fiber.

When cotton of fine quality goes to waste in the field, and this loss is due to makers of cotton fabrics, as is alleged, they not sharing in the loss but actually employing it to increase their own dividends, then there is in this fair land something as rotten as ever discovered in Denmark.

Standing sub-head: Victim expected to die.

Law abiding citizen: One who doesn't like hootch.

You see, coal is high because of the freight rate. And the freight rate is high because locomotives must burn high-priced coal.

Some of the effects obtained by ancient dames who paint make us regret that these old masters can't be preserved for posterity.

Some years there were not enough freight cars to move the crops, and some years there are not enough crops to move the freight cars.

Mr. Harding says there will always be need of armies. In that case, we should be careful about disbanding American charitable organizations.

THE LISTENING POST

The literature of judicial procedure will be searched in vain for a document at all approaching the summing up of the San Francisco magistrate who sat in the hearing of the fat buffoon charged with murder.

* * *

It is so compelling, so marvelously illucid and so remarkable a pronouncement that it deserves some passing comment here.

Although it has to do with a sordid and miserable crime that we would prefer to get away from.

To relieve our nostrils of the stench of it that has been blown from innumerable newspaper columns for the past three weeks.

* * *

But the judge's summing up deserves notice.

Except for the judicial pronouncements of the late lamented Dogberry, of whom our distinguished Shakespeare spoke, it stands alone.

And while the judge was quoting Don Juan, it is to be regretted someone did not quote something from Dogberry.

* * *

The quotation from Don Juan was especially appealing, coming as it did from the judicial lips:

"And saying she would ne'er consent, consented."

There was no evidence to sustain this quotation.

It is to be feared the judge's passion for the literature of the Don Juan stripe of individual carried him for the moment off his judicial feet.

* * *

And the quotation was also a slap in the face of a corpse.

The corpse of the girl who is dead, somehow.

We do not say how.

But it is to be sure a highly judicial and commendatory attitude, this one that quotes Don Juan to blacken the soul of a girl dead and in her grave.

Somehow!

* * *

The quotation of the judge would indicate that the flown soul of the dead girl was on trial before him.

And he made a very definite pronouncement.

By quoting Don Juan.

* * *

The judicial pronouncement was interesting also in that it set up new standards.

Those who make us laugh are after all the elect of the earth.

* * *

Those who serve us, who nourish us, who minister to our wants, who tailor for us and sweat for us, are of insignificant value beside those who make us laugh.

* * *

No matter how they make us laugh.

It is greater to toss a custard pie into the face than it is to uphold the traditions of the courts and the law.

* * *

All this is very interesting.

It serves the purpose of stimulating our youth.

It teaches them that the fat buffoons are after all the examples to follow.

No matter where the paths may lead.

* * *

And as a judicial observation it will have the weight it deserves.

Although some will take vigorous exception to it.

As we do in this Listening Post.

* * *

The judge omitted some important particulars of the trial.

The fat buffoon who makes people laugh and is therefore of such high value, also said, with respect to a dying girl, that "if she did not shut up he would throw her out of the window."

This deserves inclusion in the summing up of the iridescently luminous public value of the fat buffoon.

It proves his value.

And that the judge was right or wrong when he declared this was no ordinary case.

* * *

The judge also admits that the application of ice in the fashion it was applied was regrettable.

We are pleased, for the sake of the judicial ermine and its unsmirched whiteness, that the judge made this concession.

But, says the judge, it happened after the main event.

What main event?

* * *

Evidently the judicial foot slipped a bit here.

And when it was said by the dying girl: "I am dying, he hurt me," it was not of judicial consequence because the girl was in frightful pain.

From what?

Gin and orange juice?

* * *

We still insist, notwithstanding the nature of the offence for which the defendant is held, of which we express no opinion, that the judicial pronouncement excels anything since Dogberry.

For when the "nervous maid," as the judicial expression is, says she heard some one say:

"No! No! Oh—my God!" there were too many noes, according to the court.

And surely the "My God!" was altogether superfluous, by the same calm and judicial reasoning.

* * *

Shades of Dogberry!

If the judge had only rendered his decision and then kept his mouth shut!

JAMES W. FOLEY.

SONGS OF THE POETS

Salute to the Trees.—By Henry Van Dyke.

Many a tree is found in the wood
And every tree for its use is good:
Some for the strength of the gnarled root,
Some for the sweetness or flower or fruit;
Some for shelter against the storm,
And some to keep the hearth-stone warm;
Some for the roof and some for the beam,
And some for a boat to breast the stream;—
In the wealth of the wood since the world began
The trees have offered their gifts to man.

But the glory of trees is more than their gifts:
'Tis a beautiful wonder of life that lifts,
From a wrinkled seed in an earth-bound clod,
A column, an arch in the temple of God,
A pillar of power, a dome of delight,
A shrine of song, and a joy of sight!
Their roots are the nurses of rivers in birth;
Their leaves are alive with the breath of the earth;
They shelter the dwellings of man; and they bend
O'er his grave with the look of a loving friend.

I have camped in the whispering forest of pines,
I have slept in the shadow of olives and vines;
In the knees of an oak, at the foot of a palm
I have found good rest and slumber's balm.
And now, when the morning gilds the boughs
Of the vaulted elm at the door of my house,
I open the window and made salute:
"God bless thy branches and feed thy root!
Thoy hast lived before, live after me,
Thou ancient, friendly, faithful tree."

EASTERN POINT OF VIEW

REPRESENTATIVE AMERICANS

[Philadelphia Public Ledger]

The country agrees with the expressed opinion of President Harding that the four men he has named to represent the United States in the arms parley are "outstanding, eminent and able citizens." They are that and more. They have special qualifications; there is logic in their appointment. It is a small delegation, made so by agreement among the participating powers, but it is big in brains, in experience, in honesty and in statesmanship.

KIDD BOOTY UNFOUND

[Pittsburgh Chronicle Telegraph]

Part of the treasure hidden by the long-ago pirate Jean Lafitte is said to have been found near the home of the late "Joe" Jefferson, of happy memories. This ought to give new courage to the fellows who for many years have been trying to locate the buried booty of Cap'n Kidd.

PEACE PORTALS

[Halifax Chronicle]

The "Peace Portal" erected at a border point between the state of Washington and British Columbia on the Pacific highway, was formally dedicated as a memorial to the century of peace between Canada and the United States. The problems of industrial construction, at a standstill for three years, become more importunate with the intensifying of the economic struggle. What would not Mr. Harding give if he were safely past the unemployment and wage reduction period?

Comment on the News

By HENRY JAMES

There is a demand for the parole of Roy Gardner. It is a little hard to understand. Gardner has physical courage, an attribute generally admired, but such courage is necessary to one electing to lead a life of violent crime. He seems to have become a thief from choice. The influence of a good wife and her child was not enough to deter him. His habit is to loot the mails, a mean form of theft in that it causes moral damages beyond estimate. Compared with the destruction of private mail, the mere taking of money results in a trifling loss. Gardner had had prison experience. When under sentence for one crime he made his escape. No blood was on his hands, and the public rather favored his exhibition of spunk. Instead of going away and beginning the honest life that now he is reported to yearn after, he committed another and similar crime. Very bold, it is true, and yet there are banks robbed daily, the robbers risking death in each instance, and nobody seems to applaud them. When Gardner made his latest escape he induced two other convicts to join him. They were shot. There has been no mourning over that circumstance, but much rejoicing that Gardner had better luck. This is not consistent. The chances are that Gardner if caught will escape again, and engage in robbery. If paroled on honor, and lacking honor, his career would not be checked. If he is to be given freedom, there are thousands in prison who would have a right to resent the unfairness of being kept there.

* * *

Direct charges have been made that the predicament of Roscoe Arbuckle is due to an attempt to levy blackmail upon him. It is not likely that the public will take kindly to this view. Even were it to be established, the predisament would persist in some measure. It doubtless is unfortunate that the testimony of witnesses of higher character was not available. From the very nature of the orgy, the mere fact that a man or woman was present must militate against the standing of that person, and raise a doubt as to credibility.

* * *

"Giant army is planned" is the heading over a narration of the scheme for a reserve. It may express the facts, but read in Europe, it would convey an unhappy and misleading impression. Peaceful citizens pledged to come to the defense of their country at call, do not constitute a force involving threat to any other nation on earth.

* * *

Railway employees in Chicago are said to have voted for a general strike. It is to be hoped they will think better of it. A strike is about the least profitable course open to labor. And then the public, perhaps presumptuous, likes to be considered.

* * *

While the district attorney of this country is away on a visit the opportunity of attacking him has been seized by his enemies. Doubtless this course has the approval of Mrs. Peete and Big Hutch, the latter the confidence man who should be in the penitentiary and whom the district attorney hopes to send there yet.

* * *

Holding Arbuckle on the charge of homicide, probably means that he will not be held at all, but that the giving of bail will end his annoyances. Aside from the discomfort of temporary detention, and the entire loss of his value in the films, or any other position of high visibility, the lingering tattle of gossip, and a dead girl who seems not to have deserved her fate, the incident is about closed.

* * *

There are indications that the ku klux outfit will die hard. It is nothing but an arbitrary form of private government set up to carry out the will of its members. They assume to be above law. One effect of their activity is to promote racial hatreds. They advance the claim to be Americans while all their methods are contrary to American principles. They are brutal, presumptuous, insolent and greedy. A grain of respect might be felt on behalf of a mob gathered on the instant by the spectacle of gross outrage. There is no respect for a perpetual mob devoted not to the punishment of outrages but to committing them.

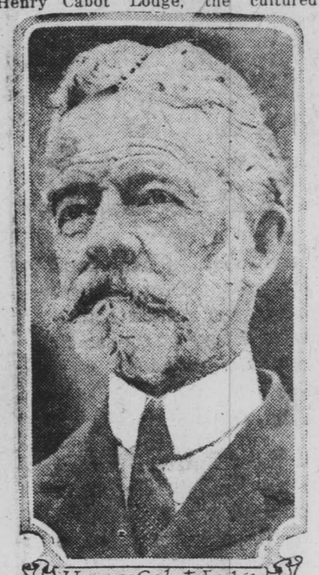
Mexico has reached such a dignified status that when rival state factions start a little war, Federal troops get between the opposing forces and tell both to behave or take a spanking. The evidence of this ability ought to boost recognition of the southern republic.

SENATOR LODGE'S FITNESS KNOWN FOR BIG PARLEY

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30. — Rapier-like adroitness is perhaps the chief mental characteristic of Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, the cultured



Henry Cabot Lodge

scholar, the shrewd politician, the dexterous parliamentarian, the kindly aristocrat.

Not even Lodge's bitterest critics question the wisdom of President Harding's choice as an American representative at the Washington conference of one so well equipped to match wits, knowledge and experience with old world statesmen and diplomats.

As chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations committee, Lodge has had abundant opportunity to become thoroughly acquainted with all the chicanery, subterfuge and camouflage of secret diplomacy. No subterranean move in the international game of grab has escaped his argus-eyed scrutiny of foreign relations and foreign affairs.

Protection of the American people from entangling foreign alliances, the safeguarding of their interests from contamination by the politics of the European chancelleries, has become with Lodge a doctrine as sacred and inviolate as the Declaration of Independence and the Bill of Rights.

ANOTHER ROBBERY HERE LAST NIGHT

Another robbery has been added to the already large list of houses that have been entered in Glendale during the past few weeks. Last night the home of Norma Corson was entered and a watch, a sapphire ring, a nugget ring, ivory tray, an ivory hair receiver and mirror, were taken.

According to Captain McGuire, who investigated, entrance to the house was gained through a front window. He stated that all of the windows in the front of the house are easily opened. The robbery occurred some time before 9 p. m.

BUSINESS BETTER IN MIDDLE WEST

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 30.—The channels of trade are broadening and the "waters" are running smoother than they have done for some time, according to statistics compiled by the Federal Reserve Bank of this district.

The clearing houses of this district are now handling more than a billion dollars a month. Most of these "clearings" are carried on by a system of exchange between the different banks which are members of the Federal Reserve system.

Mercantile trade in some lines is steadily improving; there is more activity in fall buying. There has been a marked reduction in bank loans and bank deposits steadily mount higher.

Coal production is low. It averages approximately about 50 per cent of capacity in this district. Lead and zinc production continues to stagnate.

Crude oil production continues to maintain a steady average in Oklahoma, but shows a slight reduction in Kansas and Wyoming.

That the rental stringency which has prevailed for some time past will probably be relieved soon is indicated in the increase of 70 per cent in building permits throughout the district which this review records.

There has been a heavy movement of wheat from the farms into market channels. Last month's receipts from for markets show an increase of 173 per cent above the record of a year ago.

BURIED FORTUNE IS BEING SOUGHT

Washington Unearths Evidence of Nearby Fortune in Gold Chest

WENATCHEE, Wash., Sept. 30.—Relics of pioneer days which may lead to the discovery of the hiding place of $85,000 in gold, hidden about 40 years ago by the father of Mrs. Eliza Turtle, formerly of Salem, Ore., have been uncovered by two Grant county, Wash., men. The finders are seeking Mrs. Turtle that they may assist her in locating the buried treasure.

The cache was unearthed on the banks of the Columbia river nine miles from Quincy. Mrs. Turtle's father buried the gold during Indian troubles. She, at girl at the time, was a member of the party. She has searched for years for the cache, which contained, she said, the secret of the hiding place of the treasure nearby.

Saddles, legal papers, jewelry and other articles were discovered in the cache, hidden by the party of miners en route from the then newly discovered gold field in British Columbia to their homes in Oregon.

COMPLETE CLINE HOME ON ORANGE STREET

Last night Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cline and son, Edwin, took possession of their beautiful new house at 134 North Orange street.

It is a bungalow of frame structure with raised central cement porches front and rear, trimmed with red brick pillars. The front porch, which is recessed, leads to a central living room through a wide door, consisting of a single panel of beautifully polished eucalyptus wood. This is flanked on either side by French doors and at the rear of the living room are more French doors opening on the rear porch.

The woodwork in this room and the dining room on the right is of eucalyptus and on the east wall, between the two French doors, is a beautiful fireplace, handmade by the Judson studio. The paper in this room and the dining room is of silver with gray tapestry.

A dominating feature of the dining room is a built-in buffet of eucalyptus below a wide, single-paned window.

In the kitchen beyond is a built-in cabinet and an all-porcelain pedestal sink, calculated to delight the heart of any housewife. Back of this and entered from a rear hallway leading to a screened porch, is a "den."

The door on the north side of the living room opens to a passageway leading to a beautiful white tiled bathroom, in which are an enclosed porcelain tub and pedestal lavatory. At either end of the passageway are bedrooms with closets containing built-in chiffoniers. The woodwork in these rooms is a gray stain, satin finished, and the walls are stipple painted in heliotrope and pink.

POETRY LANDS HUBBY INTO DIVORCE ROW

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 30. — Ernest R. Calhoun's soul was filled with poetry when his wife left town.

He composed a sonnet fairly tingling with color, verve, intriguing meter—and real tough luck.

Armed with the sonnet as Exhibit A of masculine faithlessness, his wife appeared before Judge Shenk and secured a divorce. Following is the fateful lyric, now reposing in court records:

When My Wife's Away

Of all the insidious,
Temptations invidious
Devised by the devil,
For pulling men down,
There is none so elusive,
Seductive absuive "X"
Than the snare to a man
When his wife's out of town!

II.

He feels such delightfulness,
Stay out-all-nightfulness,
And sure-to-get-tightfulness,
I own it with pain.
A sort of back rackishness—
What-will-you-takishness,
It's hard to explain.

III.

His wife may be beautiful,
Tender and dutiful;
It is not her absence
That causes delight.
But the cursed opportunity,
That baleful immunity
That scatters his scruples
As day scatters night.

A black Canton crepe was lined with ermine, while a brown velvet model was lined with kolinsky.

IT SEEMS ALMOST UNREAL, the great Godowsky about to hear himself play while sitting with his audience! The scene was the Music Room of the Biltmore Hotel, where the artist had charmed his audience with his wonderful talent, and, then, with them, was to hear the performance repeated in a perfect reproduction by the Ampico! The deep silence showed that the expectation and curiosity were intense. Then the music began. The great Ballade was being played again! There was the same eloquence of the opening phrases, all the glories of the memorable interpretation, repeated as they had been revealed but a moment bfore by the living pianist—but this time Godowsky was not at the piano! Curiosity and skepticism were quickly dispelled. The audience was again enthralled by Godowsky's wonderful playing, and at the conclusion of the repetition there was that moment of breathless silence before the tumult of applause broke forth, which always shows how great has been the absorption. There were shouts, and faces wreathed in smiles, for the Ampico had triumphed and everyone felt that they had been present at a scientific demonstration which would go down in history. For so it was! An invention, the result of years of scientific experiment had been submitted to the acid test and had shown itself to be pure gold! You, too, may hear this marvelous instrument in the Knabe piano at the BARNES SHUCK MUSIC COMPANY, of 211 North Brand boulevard, the local home of the Ampico!

Of course there are many other specials, such as Campbell products and National Biscuits. But in the Meat Department there are more surprises awaiting you! The nicest, juciest beef roasts that Mr. Kriske could find, he is offering for only 12½c per pound. Are you fond of Veal? In evening models, the heavily weighted, beaded effects, falling in straight and clinging line contrasts with a petal bouffancy. Taking some of the models in detail, there are points of special interest as, for instance, the irregular skirt treatment achieved with a deep scallop of points.

FOR THE SMALL FAMILY, VANDENHOFF of 205 North Brand boulevard has just the house! It is a perfect little doll house, with one bedroom, prettily papered, and a lovely big sleeping porch! There are five rooms altogether, and it has never been occupied! Imagine only $4250 for such an ideal home, and only $1000 down and the balance in monthly payments of $50.00 which includes all interest!

THE KEYNOTE OF SUCCESS and happiness in the home is—harmonious surroundings! And, above all others, this should begin with your wall covering! It has been stated that the greater part of breakfast table quarrels in the American household can be traced to—red paper on the wall! Your walls are the background for all other decorations, and should, therefore, be of an attractive, subdued coloring! # MAY HOLD BLAKE ON FEDERAL CHARGE OF WHITE SLAVERY

RIVERSIDE, Calif., Sept. 30. — While District Attorney Loyal Kelley has not made known his intentions of charging Arthur L. Blake, held in the county jail here, with violating the Mann act, he stated this morning that there is a possibility of such a charge.

Blake is held here for running away with Marguerite Jacobs, a 16-year-old high school girl and transporting her out of the state from her home in Corona. The couple left Corona on Sepetmber 6, and after going north in an automobile as far as Sacramento, the car was abandoned at a garage. The couple, it is said, continued to San Francisco, and after their failure in their attempt to get passports and passage to Australia, bought tickets and went east to New York, where they remained two days, according to the story told by the girl to Chief of Police Frank E. Redans of Corona.

Returning home by way of Houston, Tex., the couple arrived in Los Angeles. Blake, according to the Corona officer's statement, got in touch with his wife in Corona by telephone. She went to Los Angeles, and after an all-night conference in a rooming house there, it was decided that the wife should take the girl back home and try to have the parents cover up the case.

Chief Redans states that Blake and his wife made the girl believe that she would be jailed for her action, and with this story frightened her and made her agree to attempt to have her parents drop any action that had been started. However, the mother of the girl took her back gladly and the story of the runaway was told to the parents. The girl tipped Chief Redans off and Blake was found in a Los Angeles rooming house, where he was placed under arrest.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—Lloyd George has dispatched a telegram to Ireland, inviting Sinn Fein to send delegates to a peace conference in London, October 11.

The note was taken here as evidence of Lloyd George's intention to shunt aside temporarily the apparently interminable arguments as to the sovereignty of Ireland.

SCHOOL BOND ISSUE ENDORSED BY COUNCIL

A communication from Richardson D. White was read at the council meeting last night, asking the council to endorse the proposal of a school bond issue of $260,000 to be voted on October 11, 1921.

This bond issue is for the improvement of sanitary conditions and the enlargement of the Cerritos avenue school, as well as other improvements needed in the schools of the city.

On motion of Councilman Lapham the city attorney was instructed to prepare a resolution endorsing the proposed issue, and it was later adopted unanimously by the council.

An appeal from J. E. Walker regarding the changing of the assessment for street work on Arden avenue was read, and the date of a hearing was set for next Thursday night.

CITY ENGINEER WILL START IMPROVEMENTS

City Engineer Hill reported to the city council last night regarding the per cent of frontage represented in the petitions for the improvements of Harvard and Chestnut streets, and he was instructed to start proceedings for the desired improvements at once.

On motion of Councilman Lapham the map of Smalley Acres was adopted.

A resolution was introduced for the opening of Raleigh street, and an ordinance providing for a deputy clerk in the city clerk's office, was introduced. This deputy, according to City Manager Reeves, will be employed in the offices of the city clerk, the city treasurer, and will at times assist Police Judge F. H. Lowe.

H. C. Schnider, formerly of Hollywood, has purchased a home at 1138 East California street. Mr. Schnider has taken possession of this home and will make his permanent residence in Glendale.

SIDEWALK PROTESTS DENIED LAST NIGHT

Protests against the inclusion of sidewalks in the proposed improvement of Orange Grove avenue were heard last night by the city council, and on motion of Councilman Stephenson these protests were denied.

Several property owners who had signed a protest to the laying of sidewalks on this street along with other improvements, were present, and sought to withdraw their names, giving as their reason that they had signed it through a misunderstanding of the facts. They said that they had been led to believe that the majority of the property owners along the street were against installing sidewalks at this time.

Other property owners who had signed the protest signified their intention of "standing pat." As there were not protests to the improvement of Milford street offered, it was decided by the council to go ahead with the improvement on motion of Councilman Stephenson.

"THE SHARK MASTER" GLENDALE TONIGHT

If you like romance and mystery, big thrills, beautiful backgrounds, and if your heart responds to an unusual love affair, then you will enjoy "The Shark Master," the Universal South Sea photoplay, in which Frank Mayo appears at the Glendale theater today only.

The story of the beautiful Flame Flower, a white child reared among the natives and made taboo to all men by the chief of the tribe, the awakening of her feminine instincts when a man of her own blood is washed upon the beach after a tropic hurricane, and the pathetic situation when the little creature of the jungle realizes the man's heart is not free, serves to keep the audience thoroughly engrossed, while the ravishing backgrounds with their tropic beauty always delight the eye.

Frank Mayo has never been seen to better advantage than in "The Shark Master." His leading lady is May Collins, who, according to rumor, is soon to marry Charlie Chaplin. Others in the well selected cast are Doris Deane, Herbert Fortier, "Smoke" Turner, Nick DeRuiz, Carl Silvera and Oliver Cross.

OREGON HIGH STUDENT BODY OUT ON STRIKE

BEND, Or., Sept. 30.—Practically the entire student body of the Bend high school and junior high, 350 in number, walked out on a strike in protest against the dismissal of the principal, Mark Anthony Paulson, on charges of insubordination.

The strikers paraded the streets for more than an hour yelling "we want Paulson and fair play." There has been controversy between Supt. H. W. Moore and Mr. Paulson in which the pupils took sides with the latter.

HUGE SUMS USED TO WIN ELECTION

Newberry-Ford Contest Revived Today by Three Committee Reports

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—Use of huge sums of money to win congressional elections was condemned by Republican and Democratic reports on the Ford-Newberry election contest, submitted to the Senate today by the special Senate committee investigating the case.

Ousting of Senator Newberry of Michigan on the grounds that his credentials are "stained with fraud and tainted by illegal expenditures" was demanded by the Democrats on the committee.

Although admitting that $195,000 was spent in the Newberry campaign, the Republican report denies the charges of lilegal use of money and says the Michigan senator did not have direct knowledge that this large amount was being raised. Newberry should be allowed to remain in the Senate, the Republican majority report says.

Three reports—one Republican and two Democratic—were submitted, but none recommended the seating of Ford.

The reports are certain to cause a spectacular political battle when action is asked in the Senate and indications are that the Democrats hope to make a big issue for the next campaign out of the case.

POLICE SCOFF SUICIDE THEORY IN SAN DIEGO

SAN DIEGO, Sept. 30.—Although her husband claims she committed suicide, the police announced that the absence of powder marks on the right temple of Mrs. Edith Ellen Ashman, 25, indicates that she did not shoot herself, and are holding Robert A. Ashman, her husband, a garage employe, pending the findings of a coroner's jury inquest. The revolver is a long-barreled weapon and will cause powder burns at a distance of four feet, the police claim.

The final entry in a diary kept by the dead woman reads: "I can't go on this way. He is a devil now. Good Lawn with the L. G. Scovern Company

Ashman says his wife came to the garage where he is employed early yesterday morning, and asked him to have breakfast with her, and then shot herself when he went to wash his hands.

He was arrested several hours later when he was purchasing a new outfit of clothing.

The stage is all set for the chamber of commerce banquet tonight. The affair will be held at the First Methodist church, the ladies of that church having charge of the dinner. This will doubtless be the biggest thing of its kind held in Glendale this year.

During the membership drive campaign of the chamber upwards of 150 new members have been secured. All these as well as the members of the organization who enrolled them will be present along with the board of directors, and city officials, the prospects being that more than 300 Glendale boosters will be in attendance.

An interesting program is being arranged for the affair. This will include addresses by Mayor Robinson, City Manager Reeves, Secretary Rhoades and Assistant Secretary Sanders of the chamber of commerce, a vocal solo by Mrs. C. M. Retts and probably short talks by the captains of the committees that have been working in the drive.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 30.—Arrangements were being made here for the second funeral of James O'Connor, who died early this week at a local hospital. O'Connor's body was buried yesterday by mistake through a confusion of burial permits in which the body of Frank Cleveland, another hospital patient, was involved.

Cleveland had no money or friends and his body was to have been interred in the county plot. Instead, the body of O'Conner was taken to the grave by the undertaker. Discovery of the mistake led to exhumation of O'Connor's corpse and decision to hold another funeral service.

FINGER PRINTS TAKEN EVERYBODY IN TOWN

GLENVIEW, Ill., Sept. 30.—Fingerprints of every person in this town were taken today in a search for the man who killed Fred Christenson, bank cashier, last week.

The murderer left bloody finger marks on the bank fixtures and Edwin F. Rugen, president of the village, decided to finger print every one to see if the slayer is a resident of the village or not.

In a proclamation requesting the entire village to register its digits and thumbs, President Rugen pointed out that this was an opportunity for every citizen to establish a perfect alibi.

SLASH COMMODITIES SAYS EMERGENCY MEN

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30. — An emergency recommendation that prices of many commodities be slashed as a means of stimulating business was submitted to the national unemployment conference today. It is the administration's plan to use the conference as a means of forcing down prices of many articles, which have been reluctant to drop from the "war peak" regions.

The demands for lower prices will come from the committee on emergecy measures that can be taken by manufacturers to relieve unemployment.

RENT GOUGING WAVE ALL OVER NATION IS UNABATED

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—Rent gouging by profiteering landlords continues unabated throughout the nation, according to a country-wide survey just completed by the International News Service.

Building of new homes and apartments is going forward—if it can be said to be going forward at all—in slow, halting fashion.

In scores of cities, where high rents and unemployment have forced many families to abandon expensive shelters, the price of a place in which to live has not declined, despite many apartments being idle.

Few states have been able to grapple with the rent or housing problem with any degree of success. The landlords have won all the battles.

The Far West shows housing and rental conditions no better.

At Denver scores of families are living in tents on the outskirts of the city to escape high rents. Some families are living in garages at Denver to escape the profiteering landlord. Denver's rent commission is making every effort to forestall an increase in rents.

Los Angeles' rent remain high, due to the influx of new residents.

San Francisco was in a good way to start solving the rental situation by building more homes when a building trades strike stopped all operations. This likewise thwarted an expected drop in rentals.

Dallas, Texas, reports rents 50 to 75 per cent above 1914.

PRISON REFORM IS HOPE OF DAUGHERTY

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—Prison reform that will remold bad characters into good ones, today stood out as one of the big things that the Administration must do to imprve citizenship, Attrney-General Daugherty declared, discussing a new system he has evolved for handling Federal prisoners.

Attorney-General Daugherty's plan, now about ready for President Harding's approval, soon will be ready for Congress. It calls for the establishment of a new Federal vocational training plant, where prisoners can be taught trades and "otherwise rebuilt" so they may become useful citizens after their terms expire.

There are about 500 young first termers in Federal prisons, who would be eligible for transfer from prisons where now confined to the institutions which the attorney-general proposes to establish.

The attorney-general will ask Congress to authorize him to take over one of the big cantonments, left on the Government's hands at the end of the war, and re-convert it into an educational institution, with industrial features, somewhat along the lines of existing reform schools.

"What many of these prisoners need more than anything else is education to make them good," said Mr. Daugherty. "Let them remain among hardened criminals, the life termers and others, seems to me a big mistake.

"I maintain that citizenship can be made by better by some system that will reconstruct these prisoners, restore their self-respect, and equip them to face the world with some earning power at the end of their terms. After a further study of the problem and conferences with the President and others, I am convinced that we are working along the right line."

Mr. Daugherty took the position that it is not a good thing for the country to release from prison those types of offenders who have become hardened in their criminal tendencies and are likely to continue in vil ways after the law's hands have been removed from them.

"I can walk into any prison in the United States and pick out ten men I would be willing to trust," said the attorney-general. "That applies to any prison, anywhere. Put those men on their honor, let them know that there is someone who has an interest in them, and they will make good."

Mr. Daugherty's psychology has been tested and found 100 per cent. He cited his experiences with prisoners in reform institutions in Ohio and elsewhere. He has aided in the establishment and operation of some watched the development of theETA of these reform schools. He has watched the development of the inmates into useful citizens. He has found them in later years, law abiding, honest with their fellow men, and in some instances filling conspicuous roles, as leaders in civic undertakings for community betterment.

Good results achieved in the handling of the young offenders in Ohio reform schools can be extended upon a much broader scale to Federal prisons, he believes. It is possible to make such a Federal vocational school practically self-sustaining by introducing factory equipment, Mr. Daugherty said. Such an idea may be embraced in his plan.

UKULELES BARRED IN CHICAGO CITY PARKS

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—Ukuleles have been banished from playgrounds controlled by the Lincoln park board, it was announced today. Ukuleles are under the ban not because they are instrumental nits, but because they ar vicious.

William H. Wesby, superintendent of the park, confirmed the announcement. When pressed for reasons, he explained as follows:

"Ukuleles have vicious functions. They are among the reasons why—er—people leave home, and that sort of thing."

REDUCE REPAIRS

AKRON, Sept. 30.—Akron's street repair fund will be reduced to $40,000 next year in an effort to make the operating deficit at the end of 1922 as low as possible. The fund was $150,000 this year.

OPERA STARS BRING SUIT AGAINST CHURCH

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—Five women Chicago grand opera stars today declared they would bring suit against trustees of the North Shore congregation of B'nai Israel for failure to carry out a contract.

The singers claimed the congregation desired to have the "swellest Yom Kippur" celebration in Chicago and hired outside talent to sing at the six Yiddish services. As most of the music is written for male singers, the female singers had great difficulty in attaining the guttural sounds required.

Disguised as men, so as not to offend the orthadox members, the women sang at one service, they claimed, but suspicions were aroused. A protest resulted in the dismissal of the women.

Business Good—W. E. Palmer, with offices at the Stuart Pharmacy, corner Glendale avenue and Broadway, is hauling a great deal of the sand that is being used in many of the buildings of Glendale, one of the most recent of these being the Glendale chamber of commerce building. Mr. Palmer does all his hauling in a Kelly-Springfield truck.

A little over a year ago he started hauling sand in Glendale with a team of ponies and a small wagon, and since that time his business has increased from $4 to $40 per day. Much of the sand being hauled by Palmer, is for C. D. Fox of Pasadena, who, although coming to Glendale but a short time ago, has six teams of plasterers under his command.

Prize Paintings—A number of painting by Granville Redmond and W. Barr are being exhibited by Dr. C. S. Steeman, at 113 South Brand boulevard. Four of these paintings are by Redmond. These are entitled "Along the San Fernando," "Morning on the Pacific," "Early Moonrise," and "Moonlight on the Cliffs." The latter is the painting which won first prize at the recent San Fernando fair. The painting, "The Village Blacksmith," is by Barr.

Grant Deed—A grant deed from H. E. Good Sale—Gordon's Ladies' Wear store reports that yesterday they held one of the most successful "Dollar Day" sales they have ever had. At 7:30 there were crowds of people in front of the store, waiting for the doors to open.

Slight Rarn—Glendale is experiencing the first rain of the season today. A mild rain started at 6 o'clock this morning and continued throughout the day. Sufficient had not fallen, however, to register on the rain gauge at noon.

Another Bike—Frank Waikoff reported to the police last night that his bicycle had been stolen from in front of the Palace Grand theater. The many bicycle thefts are the work of an organized band of thieves who operate here and sell the stolen bicycles in Los Angeles or nearby cities, the police believe.

To Conference—Lay representatives of the First Methodist church of this city who have been appointed to attend the annual conference next week, include Henry Johnston, Dr. and Mrs. H. V. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Starkey, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Lusby, J. B. Clarke, A. G. Lindley, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Tower, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Geiger, T. A. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Spickerman, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bott and W. A. Webber. Churches are allowed one lay member to each 50 or major fractions thereof enrolled.

New Badge—Desk Officer Mann of the Glendale police force was notified yesterday afternoon to turn in his badge as a patrolman on the Glendale force. The blow of losing his badge as a patrolman was softened by the further notice that in its place he would receive the badge of desk sergeant.

Parent-Teachers Meet—A special called meeting of the Glendale Parent-Teacher federation will be held on Wednesday, October 5, at 2:30, in the city library building on Harvard street. It will be a short but very important meeting, and all members are urged to be present.

Ethel—Has that handsome lifeguard taught you how to swim yet?
Clara—Yes; but he doesn't know it.

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers You, Drink Lots of Water

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.
